Optimized for defense, this skid

is a variation of the General Skid (R1.68A). It contains an APR box, two Phaser-3s, two batteries and a tractor beam. The phasers have a 360-degree firing arc. The skid increases the BPV of the freighter by six and adds a single crew unit (to operate the systems). No empire ever built a version of this equipped with a Phaser-G, not even the Hydrans.
